

Scam Letter - Remain vigilant

The letter purports to be from Chen NGUNYEN. He claims to be an auditor from the Hana Bank in Hong Kong. The letter states that the recipient has the same name as an investor who died a number of years ago. The letter states that the recipient is entitled to a 30% share of 10 million US dollars that has been left by the deceased with the auditor claiming a sizeable fee for their efforts in locating the rightful heir to the fortune. The letter states that utmost secrecy is required in order to ensure that the funds can be transferred and also that the letter was smuggled out of Hong Kong by a friend of the sender to ensure it didn't enter the postal system over there and so avoid detection.

If you receive a letter similar to this please dismiss it. Please alert your neighbours, family and friends of this letter.

Sussex Police
Serving Sussex