Non-Emergency contact number 101 – Emergency 999

Chichester District

Theft of working dogs.

We have had 2 reports in the last week of dogs being stolen from the same location in Linchmere. Our first report was on the 11 January when it was reported that two Springer Spaniels and one Cocker Spaniel were stolen and a second report was received on 15 January reporting that overnight three terriers and one Cocker Spaniel had been stolen.

If you own dogs or working dogs that sleep in yards or kennels in gardens, please ensure you heighten your security surrounding your dogs.

Please report anything suspicious to us immediately.
