Neighbourhood Watch Community Notice

Non-Emergency contact number 101 – Emergency 999
Chichester District

Weekend Activity

Over the weekend period we received numerous reports of incidents whereby suspects have gained, or attempted to gain entry to various structures across the district. These range from attempted break-ins to garages in the Loxwood area, shed breaks in Chichester to caravan and shed breaks in the Selsey area.

Please remain vigilant; criminals are acting in our communities. If you see anybody or any vehicle that makes you suspicious of their behaviour, please let us know immediately.

Please protect your property, ensure that it is locked away securely and kept out of sight. If you have any information that can help us identify these criminals please contact us on 101 or contact your local PCSO. Details can be found here www.sussex.police.uk

Attempted Arson

It is believed that overnight, Friday 20th April to Saturday 21st April 2012 an attempt was made to set fire to hay bales within a barn in the location of Chapel Lane, West Wittering. A quantity of alcohol bottles and food items were left at the location.

A similar incident occurred in the area of Rookwood Road, West Wittering. Police are investigating both of these incidents. If you have any information that could help us with our investigations please contact us on 101 quoting reference 335 21/04/12.
