Early May Bank Holiday Appeal for Information

With the upcoming early May Bank Holiday weekend Sussex Police are asking members of the public to be alert to any possible rave related activity.

This could include:

- the removal of locks from secured access points
- vehicles, particularly panel vans or larger, driving off road
- groups of vehicles congregating in rural areas
- convoys of vehicles
- loud music from remote woodland

Please report any such activity on the Sussex Police non emergency number of 101 as soon as possible.

By receiving early warnings Sussex Police have a much better chance of disrupting the rave and dispersing those responsible for its organisation

Extra patrols will be mounted over the Bank holiday weekend and any early intelligence of rave activity gained from members of the public will be passed to these patrols as soon as it is received.

If you have any information about illegal raves or those involved in their organisation please contact
